

The Gumboot Song

Intro and filler

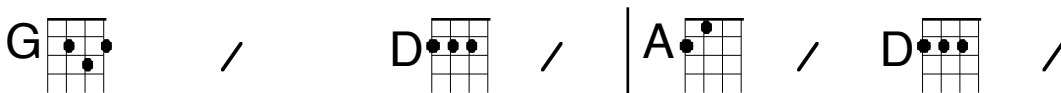

1) Gumboots, they are wonderful, gumboots, they are swell, coz
 2) Now there's rugby boots and racing boots and boots for drinkin' rum.
 3) Whenever I sing at the opera, my gumboots are a must they keep out the water and they keep in the smell. And

But the only boots I'm never without are the ones that start with gum. I've got They help me hit the high notes, and protect me feet from dust.

When you're sittin' round at home, you can always tell when short ones and long ones and some up to me belt. I'm They keep the water well away, so me voice won't get no rust. You will one of the Shirls has taken off her gum- boots. If it... never dressed 'till I've got on me gum- boots. If it... not never see me without me gum- boots. If it...

Chorus

weren't for your gumboots, where would ya be? You'd be in the hospital or infirm- ary, coz you would have a dose of the 'flu, or even pleurisy if ya didn't have yer feet in yer gum- boots.
